Mission Centered Hiring – University of Providence

The University of Providence seeks employees who understand and contribute to the university’s mission and vision. We are committed to our identity as a Catholic institution, in the tradition of Providence Ministries, in our values, our operations and our curriculum as we strive to help each student, each employee, the local community, and each other thrive academically, professionally, spiritually, and personally in our religiously and culturally diverse academic environment.

Reflection Prompt on Mission and Vision

In its mission, the University of Providence sees its employees as working within a broader social, religious, moral, and cultural context.

Upon reflection of our Catholic identity, please share with us how you would support and advance our mission.
