UPDATE:Faith in Action Immersion Trip

Spots for St. Francis Inn (Philly) are filling quickly. Please get your application in this week if you want to go on this immersion trip. CAP's Workfest still has plenty of open spots. This site is new this year and has us working along side 5-6 other universities on home repair in Eastern Kentucky.

Reminder: Both sites require plane tickets. We would like to book by December 8th. So get your application in!

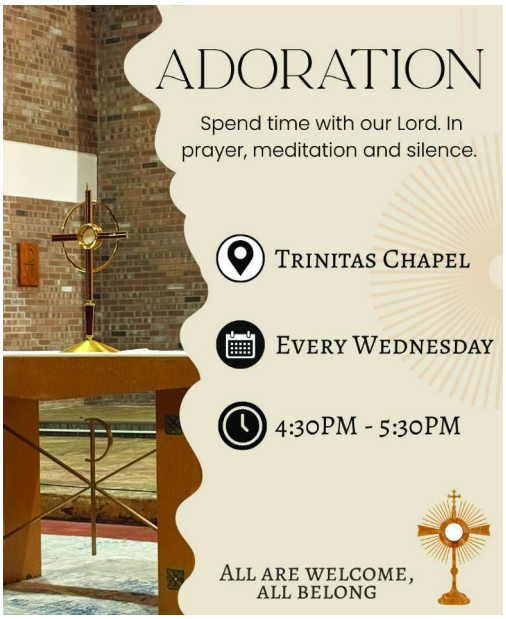

Weekday Masses

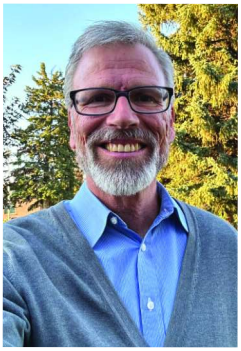

Please mark your calendars for the Weekday Mass schedule for the rest of November. Tuesday, Nov. 10 and Friday, Nov. 13. Mass is at Noon.

N.B.: No weekday Masses Nov. 17 & 20, nor Nov. 24 & 27.

On Tuesday evenings at 7 pm there is a group of students who gather at Trinitas Chapel to pray the Rosary. Never prayed the Rosary? No worries. They have simple guides and rosaries available and you get to keep both. The rosary is a beautiful style of prayer allowing you to get beyond the words and meditate on the life and ministry of Jesus.

A View from My Window

There are loads of "tests" one can take to find your strengths, charisms, personality types, and types of working genius. Did I say genius? Yes, Patrick Lencioni has created a test that identifies six types of working genius. They are wonder, invention, discernment, galvanizing, enablement, and tenacity. We each have two of these that we are naturally good at, and in fact we thrive at work and in life when we get to embrace them. Two others we are competent at doing, and the final two that we will do but we have no passion for them, and they have a tendency to zap our energy if we have to do them all the time.

The test is a tool that company's undertake to have their teams align more closely. It allows them to utilize everyone's natural genius, and in turn bring understanding and energy to the work culture.

I took this test years ago and discovered that my working geniuses are invention and enablement. I wanted discernment and tenacity, but as time has passed I realize I really do get energized when I get to put mine into play.

I wonder if the ten virgins had taken this test, they would have worked more closely together to make sure everyone had enough oil as they waited for the return of the bridegroom. I know that is not the point of the story, but as we are striving to live a life of holiness, what if we worked so all can experience a life in Christ.

Prayer for Our Troops

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of all humanity and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid
for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless
the members of our armed forces.
Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support,
gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector,
leading them from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise,
now and forever.
Amen.

As we enter the the final weeks of the Liturgical Year the readings begin to shift in their tone. We come to that time of year when we remember our family and friends who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. The Book of Remembrance is on a stand in the back of the chapel near the baptismal font. Please take a moment to inscribe the name of a loved one who has passed away and for whom you would like us to hold in prayer.
